*Beaver Area School District
Board Policy 202:*

A pupil will be accepted for enrollment on the first day of school when his/her family has executed a contract to buy, build, or rent a residence in the district for occupancy; said pupil may be enrolled without payment of tuition, provided that the anticipated date of residency is not later than 30 days from enrollment. However, if his/her family does not move into the school district before thirty days, his/her parents will be billed for tuition at the daily rate from the first day of enrollment. The student will then be removed from the rolls and their home district will be notified.
