SENIOR NEWS

1. Have you ordered your high school student's copy of the 2024 Shingas yet? Now is the time to order your copy before the next price increase. Order at jostensyearbooks.com. As always, payment plans are available.

2. Senior parents can order and design their senior recognition ads for the Class of 2024 now. It's a three step process to send your grad off with a recognition ad. Payment plans are available. Check it out at jostensadservice.com/student.

3. Has your senior submitted the items needed for the 2024 Shingas? The yearbook staff made phone calls in December to those who were missing information or photos. We need this information ASAP in order to not hold up the production of the yearbook. Please help out the students as they create this important piece of history for our school and send in the missing items.
