

Chapter 1 - Lesson 1 Vocabulary

classification - the grouping of things by using a set of rules kingdom - the largest group into which living things can be classified protist - the kingdom of classification for organisms that have only one cell and also have a nucleus or cell control center fungi - living things such as mushrooms that look like plants, but cannot make their own food genus - the second smallest name grouping used in classification species - the smallest name grouping used in classification